IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

STATE OF UTAH, Plaintiff, vs. TYLER JAMES ROBINSON, Defendant.	ORDER REQUIRING PREHEARING MEMORANDA REGARDING TRIAL PREPARATION AND SCHEDULING Case No. 251403576 Judge Tony F. Graf, Jr.

Pursuant to Rule 13 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, and in preparation for the trial-setting hearing scheduled for October 23, 2026, the State and counsel for Mr. Robinson shall each file and serve a memorandum no later than the end of the day on Wednesday, October 21, 2026, addressing the following:

1. The estimated time needed to prepare for jury trial, including the requested preparation period in calendar days and an itemized description of the anticipated preparation tasks, with reasonable estimates of the days and hours required. Counsel shall identify material scheduling dependencies or uncertainties, including outstanding discovery, expert work, and investigation, to the extent this can be done without disclosing privileged information or protected attorney work product.
2. The estimated number of trial days required and the number of trial hours per day used to calculate that estimate.
3. The estimated time required for voir dire, expressed in days and hours, including any additional time anticipated for capital-case jury selection.
4. An itemized allocation of the remaining anticipated trial time, expressed in days and hours, among the anticipated phases of trial. If a capital penalty phase is applicable, counsel shall separately estimate the preparation and trial time needed for that phase, including aggravation and mitigation evidence.

5. The proposed number of alternate jurors and the reasons supporting that proposal.
6. Each party's proposed trial commencement date, anticipated readiness date, and proposed deadlines for discovery, expert disclosures, and pretrial motions, identifying any material contingencies affecting those dates.

Any proposed scheduling order shall be attached to the memorandum.

The estimates shall reflect counsel's present assessment and identify material assumptions. They are requested for scheduling purposes and shall not, by themselves, establish binding limits on preparation or presentation of the case, require the defense to present evidence, or constitute a waiver of any right or objection. Counsel may request supplementation or modification upon a showing of changed circumstances or other good cause.

This order does not require disclosure of privileged information or protected attorney work product. If protected information is necessary to explain a scheduling request, counsel may seek an appropriate protective procedure under applicable law before submitting that information.

The Court will use the memoranda to establish a schedule that accounts for the constitutional rights of Mr. Robinson and the victim representative, as applicable and defined by law, while ensuring adequate preparation by both parties and a fair and impartial trial, and avoiding unwarranted delay.

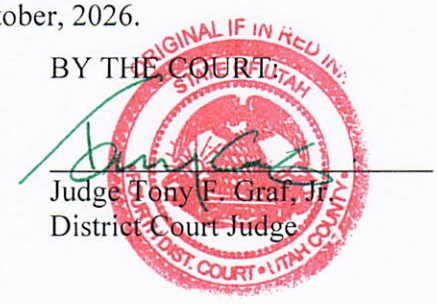

At the October 23, 2026 hearing, the Court will consider the proposed trial dates, preparation periods, pretrial deadlines, anticipated trial length, and number of alternate jurors. Counsel shall be prepared to explain their proposals and address any scheduling objections.

Mr. Robinson shall be present unless he waives his appearance under Rule 13. After considering the memoranda and hearing from counsel, the Court will state the reasons supporting its scheduling determinations on the record and enter a pretrial/scheduling order setting out the matters ruled upon.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 2nd day of October, 2026.

BY THE COURT:

Judge Tony F. Graf, Jr.
District Court Judge
